State v. Sandoval

No. 20110300

Per Curiam.

[¶1] Jeffrey Sandoval appeals from an amended criminal judgment after the district court revoked his probation and ordered him to serve a sentence longer than the original sentence the court imposed after he pled guilty to a felony and two misdemeanors. Sandoval argues the district court abused its discretion when it revoked his probation and it imposed an illegal sentence upon him when it amended three criminal judgments after revoking his probation, because the court imposed a longer sentence than it did under the original plea agreement. We summarily affirm under N.D.R.App.P. 35.1(a)(4).
